

Lifelines and Bloodlines Convention Events

Thursday, June 20th, Opening Reception 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm, PAC Atrium

Hosted by the Broward County chapter in the PAC Atrium, this promises to be a beautiful evening kickoff. Trustee Representative, Michael Shorter and wife, Chapter President Jacqueline Shorter will set the tone and rhythm and they hope that you join all of us in the themed regalia for a social welcome. Light hors d'oeuvres are planned. This Power Couple will be hard to outshine, and they are already wardrobe-ready. Requested Attire: Business Optional Attire: Business with African adornment and/or accessories. (Kente or Ankara) $20.00

Friday, June 21st, Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune Luncheon - 11:30 am - 1:30 pm, CCE Banquet Room

It is only fitting that a tribute luncheon to our mother be hosted by our mother chapter. Volusia County chapter members Claire Williams and Eyvette Presley, have planned a program of inspiration, songs and prayer. Our annual candle-lighting ceremony and Necrology Services, giving honor to the lives of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune and other Wildcats, is held annually at this event. Don't forget to submit the names of Wildcats who you'd like included in the listing. New this year will be a small Rededication Service. Requested Attire: White Optional Attire: White with African adornment and/or accessories. (Kente or Ankara) $65.00

Friday, June 21st, Ms National Alumni Pageant-7:30 pm - 9:30 pm, Heyn Memorial Chapel

Enjoy an evening of pageantry as contestants from chapters around the country vie for the title of Ms. National Alumni. This annual fundraiser generates a significant portion of the monies we donate the NAA Endowed Account given to the University. Because of the hard work of each contestant, the Association looks forward to this event each year. Good luck to all contestants. Requested Attire: Business or Semi-Formal Optional Attire: Business or Semi-Formal with African adornment and/or accessories. (Kente or Ankara) FREE

Life Members and NAA Awards Luncheon - 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM, CCE Banquet Room

This event is hosted by the Miami-Dade Chapter which consistently re-engages more than fifty Life Members each year in their local chapter. It also has the largest number of Young Alumni Life Members. The keynote speaker for this event will be Young Alum and 2018 "40 Under 40" honoree, Keon Williams. All Life Members, young and seasoned, are encouraged to attend and hear his challenge to all lifeline, lifetime, committed Life Members. During this event Life Members will be recognized and new Life Members will be inducted. Make it a point to invite Life Members who may not be attending the entire convention to come hear his message and support our Young Alumni as they usher in a new generation of committed members. The Awards Committee will present the Association's numerous awards as well as name the 2019-2020 Shaft of Light honoree. Requested Attire: Business Casual Optional Attire: Business Casual with African adornment and/or accessories. (Kente or Ankara) $65.00

Saturday, June 22nd, Legacy Gala. 6:30 pm -10:30 pm, Halifax River Yacht Club

We are so excited to welcome Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune's maternal family to the campus and the Convention. They are planning to join us for the Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune Luncheon and the Legacy Gala. They also plan to tour the campus and meet their Wildcat family/families. On Saturday night, Mrs. Mazie Ferguson, great-grand niece of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune will be the keynote speaker and will share family stories and introduce other members of the South Carolina family. Requested Attire: Semi-Formal with African adornment and/or accessories. (Kente or Ankara) $ 100.00
